

BATTLE-WORN U. S. MARINES AND SOLDIERS, PROTECTED BY NAVAL GUNS AND A HUGE AIR UMBRELLA, BOARD TRANSPORTS AT HUNGNAM, EVACUATING N. E. KOREA

Leaving Korea's Frozen Northeast Expanse After A Series of Heroic Retreats Through Traps Sprung by 120,000 Chinese Reds — American Warships Stand By to Protect Units.

By Howard Handelman
Far Eastern Director, INS
TOKYO, Dec. 13 — (INS) — Battle-worn thousands of U. S. Marines and soldiers, protected by Naval guns and a huge air umbrella, were boarding transports at Hungnam today in a Dunkirk-like evacuation of all northeast Korea.

Together with other United Nations units of the Tenth Corps, the Americans were abandoning Korea's frozen northeast expanse after a series of heroic fighting retreats through traps sprung by some 120,000 Chinese Red troops. Standing offshore, American warships trained their big guns in readiness to lay a screen of shell-fire around the 15-mile Hungnam-Hamhung beachhead perimeter as the begrimed troops went aboard the transports with their equipment.

Hundreds of carrier and land-based planes criss-crossed overhead to attack any enemy aircraft or approaching Chinese ground forces that might seek to interfere with the UN withdrawal by sea.

The Dunkirk-style withdrawal began three days ago at the port of Hungnam when U. S. First Marine Division units started boarding troop transports in the harbor.

The Leathernecks began going aboard the transport vessels immediately upon their arrival at Hungnam following their heroic 13-day breakout from a huge Chinese trap in the Changjin reservoir area. American army units, including Seventh Infantry Division soldiers who had fought beside the Marines down the icy road through the Changjin pocket, covered the Leatherneck embarkation.

These rearward forces of the Army's Seventh and Third Divisions then pulled back from the beachhead perimeter around Hamhung to Hungnam to board transports themselves. Hungnam lies six miles south of the rail-industrial center of Hamhung.

The evacuation of perhaps 25,000 Leathernecks and G.I.'s together with some 150 British Marine Commandos, was being carried out in an orderly manner, as far as was known in Tokyo.

It proceeded under the protection of the big guns of a United Nations naval armada and waves of carrier-borne American Navy and Marine troops.

LIVING TO BE 100

Every college has to have an oldest alumnus. If he is spry enough to get back for reunions and the Big Game, he inspires a lot of publicity and sentiment. Few institutions have an oldest alumnus who is both vigorous and a centenarian. Dr. Eugene Bouton of Bloomfield, N. J., is therefore a source of special pride to Yale, from which he was graduated 75 years ago.

Dr. Bouton is a man of modesty and balanced perspective. He was pleased by the attention he received on his centennial, but not inclined to take overmuch credit to himself. "I suppose it is some sort of an accomplishment to live to 100," he observed; but he had no suggestions for others who would like to match him. He says: "I always tried to live right and practice common sense."

The formula is not quite as simple as it sounds, but life might be less troublesome and much happier if more persons were able to adopt it. It is Dr. Bouton's good fortune to finish a century in an age when this is still remarkable. It is possible that during the lifetime of many now on earth, living to be 100 will become commonplace. The natural span of life is being lengthened steadily.

GROWING DANGER

Drug addiction is increasing sharply in the United States, Canada and Great Britain, reports to the United Nations Commission on Narcotics indicate. There is increased smuggling of heroin from Italy and Turkey. Harry J. Anslinger, federal narcotics commissioner, says the increase in addiction is mostly among young people who start by smoking marihuana cigarettes and progress to heroin.

Mr. Anslinger says the age of the new addicts is shocking, a statement that recalls the arrest in New York last week of a 17-year-old girl, who admitted she had been selling narcotics for eight months at an average profit of $1,000 a week.

Many reasons are offered for the spread of addiction, but the one of chief concern to public authority is increased smuggling. The police must wage an uphill fight unless federal authority can choke off the supply of drugs flowing in from abroad. Growing drug addiction is a dangerous threat to America's social stability. It must be combated by all the resources of government.

A new anesthetic is described as powerful enough to allay pain for three weeks. With rates going up every three weeks, this would have little practical value of a taxpayer.

Some people are mystified why in the world the President threatened to commit mayhem on the music critic of a New Deal newspaper who said Margaret is charming but cannot sing. The explanation may be that Harry thought the critic was being sarcastic when he said she is charming.

Club Honored With Award by Nat'l Group

tonight I am to award this certificate to this club as a good club. A standard Club has 20 activities and must meet the requirements of 16 of them. To be a good club there are four more activities added and you must meet three of them. There is no easy way to acquire this award. You have to work for it."

Russell Straub accepted the award, saying: "Running this club and winning this award is not a one-man job. The committees did a very good job last year, and we must not lose sight that the fellows in office now did a lot to get this award. All of us present all think we have a good club and this award now proves it."

Clyde Betts, Chairman of entertainment, introduced Victor Riesel. Mr. Riesel in his talk said: "I know you have heard a lot about Communism and what Communists are doing, but I am sure very few of you know just how much they have infiltrated into our labor unions and into big business."

"The Communist is out to rule the world and it is up to us to stop them. This can be done if we would stop big business from selling to Red China and other Communist countries. A lot of goods is being sold to British merchants who in turn are selling it to the Communists, who are turning it into war material with which to fight us. There is no way to stop Communism if you are going to still supply the material for war to enemy powers."

In this country the Communists are not only in labor; they are in key jobs all over the country and in a lot of plants in executive jobs. They will take all the vows of fidelity you want them to. They are well trained by Moscow in how to lie. So if industry expects labor to clean house they should show the way by cleaning their house first. No matter how you look at it, if you want to beat Communism it will cost you money."

"Right now it has been decided in Communist headquarters to launch a series of demonstrations and violent strikes in Europe. Don't be fooled and think they are not also organized here in this country. There are two men on the west coast who are part of this organization and have their orders from Moscow right now. On September 21st of this year there was a meeting of the Cominform which is another word for Communism in Warsaw and a lot of American people attended this meeting. They were told just how to take all transportation in this country and to use it against us. They are taught just what to do when the time comes to strike, and how to do it so that it will work. The Communists have become part of the shipbuilders and dock workers unions so that they will be in the right places, when the time comes to strike."

"Most of us think of Stalin as a man who does not look human but he is just as human as any of us and does not look any different than any other man. You should not think Communists are strange people, they look and act most of the time just like you and I; they go to movies and other things and you can not tell them from any one else, it is just the way they think and gather information. At one time 1200 Americans attended the common form and they were just as much Communists as Stalin. In the Cominform there is a set of brains that figures how to infiltrate American industry," Mr. Riesel declared. "I say it exists in the United States and there is a group of Cominform in most of our big plants in the country. The brain of the Cominform has decided that the next war will be an electronics war and the Communists are getting ready for it now and that is just what this country should also be doing. Steps should be taken now, so that we treat Stalin as Stalin would treat us. The time has come to understand what the Cominform is and what should be done about it."

"The United Electrical Union is the invasion force for the Communists. They are Communist controlled and their leaders have attended the Cominform meetings. They have organized other trade unions and are the ones who organized the trade union league."

Riesel stated, "Jim Atlas was given the job of infiltrating the electric industry and he has done a good job of it. No matter what the plant, if it is a security risk plant you will find the Communists around the bottle-neck. They all report to Moscow. They have a chain of command here in America and each man at the top commands, only knows two other men besides himself. The one who gives him orders and the one he gives them to."

"The greatest infiltration is in the plants that are making war material. A lot of you are wondering how this is done. In 1934 they decided to take the movie industry. They wanted it for indoctrination of their product and the color, plus the money. First they won the actors, then they infiltrated the screen labor union. How they did this was by giving social affairs, handling grievances for the workers, and doing things for them in general, so that they would be on their side. This is the way they do it in all plants. That way they get control of the union and work a bottle-neck."

"Industry must reach the people first in their plants. Mr. Riesel stated, "because if you don't the Communists will. So it is up to all of us to fight Communism with all we got and I am sure that America will win."

In closing Riesel said, "When the time comes we here in America will take a few chances and win and will come through as decent people."

badges and rank pins were awarded to girls and guides, who had completed the necessary requirements. The club is a group which was organized several years ago by college girls, designed to meet the physical, mental and spiritual needs of growing girls.

Dissatisfaction concerning the street light service at Dublin was expressed before Dublin Borough Council, by representatives of the electric light committee. The service is furnished by the Phila. Electric Company, to whom the secretary, William Bishop, was instructed to write a letter of complaint. The committee told Council that the lights are often turned on too late in the evening, and that frequently lights are out a week at a time.

Battle-Worn U. S. Forces Evacuating N. E. Korea

Corps planes that spread an aerial canopy over the entire beachhead and its approaches.

From the air, International News Photos cameraman Irwin Tress photographed the American Marines boarding the transports and loading their equipment onto the vessels three days ago.

(Up until a late hour Wednesday no dispatches mentioning the evacuation from Hungnam had been received direct from any correspondents in Korea. These newsmen apparently remained under a security embargo regarding the Hungnam-Hamhung beachhead.)

The huge withdrawal by sea was under preparation since the first Marine, Army Seventh Division and British Commando troops commenced their historic breakout drive from Hagaru at the south end of the Changjin reservoir, 40 air miles above Hungnam.

Several days ago, Vice Adm. Charles T. Joy, Commander of the U. S. Far East Naval Forces, announced that the UN armada was standing off Hungnam ready for any task it would be called upon to perform.

Only last Monday, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, in a one-day flying inspection trip to Korea, landed at the airfield outside Hungnam and there conferred for two hours with Maj. Gen. E. M. Almond, Commander of the Tenth Corps.

Left unannounced was whether the Tenth Corps' forces are being moved to Japan or will be debarked at Pusan or some other South Korean port to augment Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker's Eighth Army now aligned along new defenses above Seoul.

Hitherto the Tenth Corps and the Eighth Army have been operating separately in different sections of Korea but if Almond's Corps is landed in territory held by Walker's Army it may come under the latter's command.

BENSALEM GOES DOWN TO DEFEAT BEFORE HATBORO

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Dec. 13.—Bensalem Township lost a thrilling night game to Hatboro High here last night before a large crowd. Final score was: Hatboro, 42; Bensalem, 35.

The Hatters won the game in the last three minutes. They were trailing the Owls, 21-30, when they made their final spurt which netted them the 7-point triumph.

Coach "Johnny" Messinger's team had taken the lead, 21-30, about mid-way in the final session. The Owls were behind, 30-26, at the end of the third quarter and scored five points while blanking the Hatboro team. However, the visitors came back strong to clinch the tilt.

Bensalem was on the short end of an 8-5 score at the end of the first period but in the second session "Al" Bader began to shake the cords and kept the Owls in the contest with his scoring. Hatboro had a slim 18-17 margin at recess time.

Al Bader scored 13 of the Bensalem points while Russ Alden accounted for 20 Hatboro tallies and Larry Wilson was good for 11 carries. Bensalem made five of their six foul tries.

In the preliminary game, the Bensalem Jayvees topped the Hatboro Junior Varsity team, 33-31. The boys of Coach Arnold Ody were two points behind, 29-27, when they staged their final rally to check in with the verdict.

"Russ" Struble paced the winners with seven double-deckers and a pair of fouls while Jack Bistrek had eight points for Hatboro.
